Once there was a farmer
who had two daughters.
The father loved his daughters
very much.

One daughter was named Anna.

When Anna grew up, she became a gardener.

Anna worked hard every day to grow her garden.

The other daughter
was named Emma.
When Emma grew up,
she became a brickmaker.
Emma worked hard every day
to make her bricks.

One day, both daughters came to see their father. The farmer asked his daughters if there was anything they wished for.

Anna said she wished
for more rain.
She said her plants could not grow without rain.

Emma said she wished
for more sunshine.
She said her bricks could not
dry without sunshine.

After listening to his daughters,
the old man became sad.
He was not sure
what to wish for.

If Emma got her wish
for more sunshine,
Anna would be unhappy.

If Anna got her wish for more rain, Emma would be unhappy.

The farmer learned
an important lesson.
Everyone cannot be happy
all the time.
