“When can I stay up late?” I asked.

“When you grow up,” said Dad.

“When can I eat anything I want?”

I asked.

“When you are grown up,” Mom said.

“When can I go shopping by myself?”

I asked.

“When you grow up,” Dad said.

“When can I go to the movies alone?”

I asked.

“When you grow up,” said Mom.

“When can I drive the car?” I asked.
“When you are grown up,” said Dad.

“When can I get a job like yours?”

I asked.

“When you grow up,” said Mom.

“When can I go out at night?”

I asked.

“When you are grown up,” Dad said.

“When can I have cookies and milk?”

I asked.

“Right now,” said Mom.
