It is getting cold outside.
The wind is blowing.
There is a nip in the air.

Jamal and Isha
run into the house.
They get their coats.

They come back outside.
White flakes begin to fall.

Jamal and Isha
open their mouths.
They catch snow
on their tongues.

The snow begins to fall fast.
It falls faster and faster.

The snow gets deep.
It gets deeper and deeper.

The wind blows harder.
It gets colder and colder.

Jamal and Isha
go into the house.
It feels good to be warm.
