Mrs. Beaver got up early
for the winter holiday.
She wanted to make
a special treat.

She mixed some flour, sugar,
and water in a bowl.

She added oil, eggs, milk,
and butter.

She rolled the dough
into a big ball.

She cooked the dough in hot oil to make bread.

She put the bread on a rock outside to cool.

Mr. Beaver was busy chewing on a nearby tree.

The tree fell onto the bread
with a loud crash!

“Oh, no!” cried Mrs. Beaver.
“The bread is as flat as my tail!”

“Now who will want to eat it?”
she asked.
