An Exciting Sport

American football is a sport.

It is fun to play.

Many people go to each Super Bowl game. Many others watch the game on TV.

Football Teams

Many American cities and schools have football teams.

The Super Bowl is the biggest football game.

Countries That Play American Football

Football Around the World

People play American football in many countries.

A team from Germany (with the ball) is about to start a play against a team from Sweden.

American Football Field

Eleven players from each team are on the field at the same time.

Playing the Game

Football teams try to score points.
They try to stop the other team
from getting points.

The name of the home team is on both end zones.

Each end of the field has an end zone.

Players try to get the ball
into the end zone.

They can run with the ball.

In American football, throwing is called passing (top). To score a touchdown, a player carries or catches the ball in the end zone (bottom).

Players can also throw or hand the ball to a player on their team. If a player with the ball reaches the end zone, it is a touchdown. They score six points with each touchdown.

After a touchdown, the team can try to score one or two extra points.

If the team kicks the ball between the goalposts, the team scores one extra point.

A player throws the ball to his teammate for two extra points.

The team can also run with the ball or pass it into the end zone. If they do, they score two extra points.

The player in white tackles the player with the ball.

The other team tries to stop players with the ball.
They tackle them to stop them.

A player on one team (blue) tries to grab the ball away from a player on another team (white).

The other team also tries to take the ball from the team with the ball.

If they do, they can run with the ball to try to make a touchdown.

Football fans dress up in their team colors to show their support.

Football Fans

Some football fans paint their faces.

Other fans dress in the colors of their team.

Football is a fun sport for fans and players.

Connections

Writing

Create a new team. Choose the team's city, name, and colors. Write a letter to fans announcing your new team.

Math

An American football field is 100 yards (91 m) long. Work with your class to find out how many feet long the field is. If your classmates all lay across a field head to toe, would you all fit? Draw a picture showing your results.
