Millions of people around the world
watch soccer on television.

Great Fun

Soccer is a fun sport.

Players kick a ball with their feet.

They run very fast.

Soccer Teams

Schools have soccer teams.

Teams from different schools play each other.

Students of all ages can play soccer. They play on school teams or just for fun.

Soccer Around the World

The game is called soccer in North America and several other places. Most of the world calls it football.

Soccer Around the World

Countries have soccer teams, too.

Some countries call the sport soccer.

Some countries call it football.

France (white) plays Portugal (blue and red).

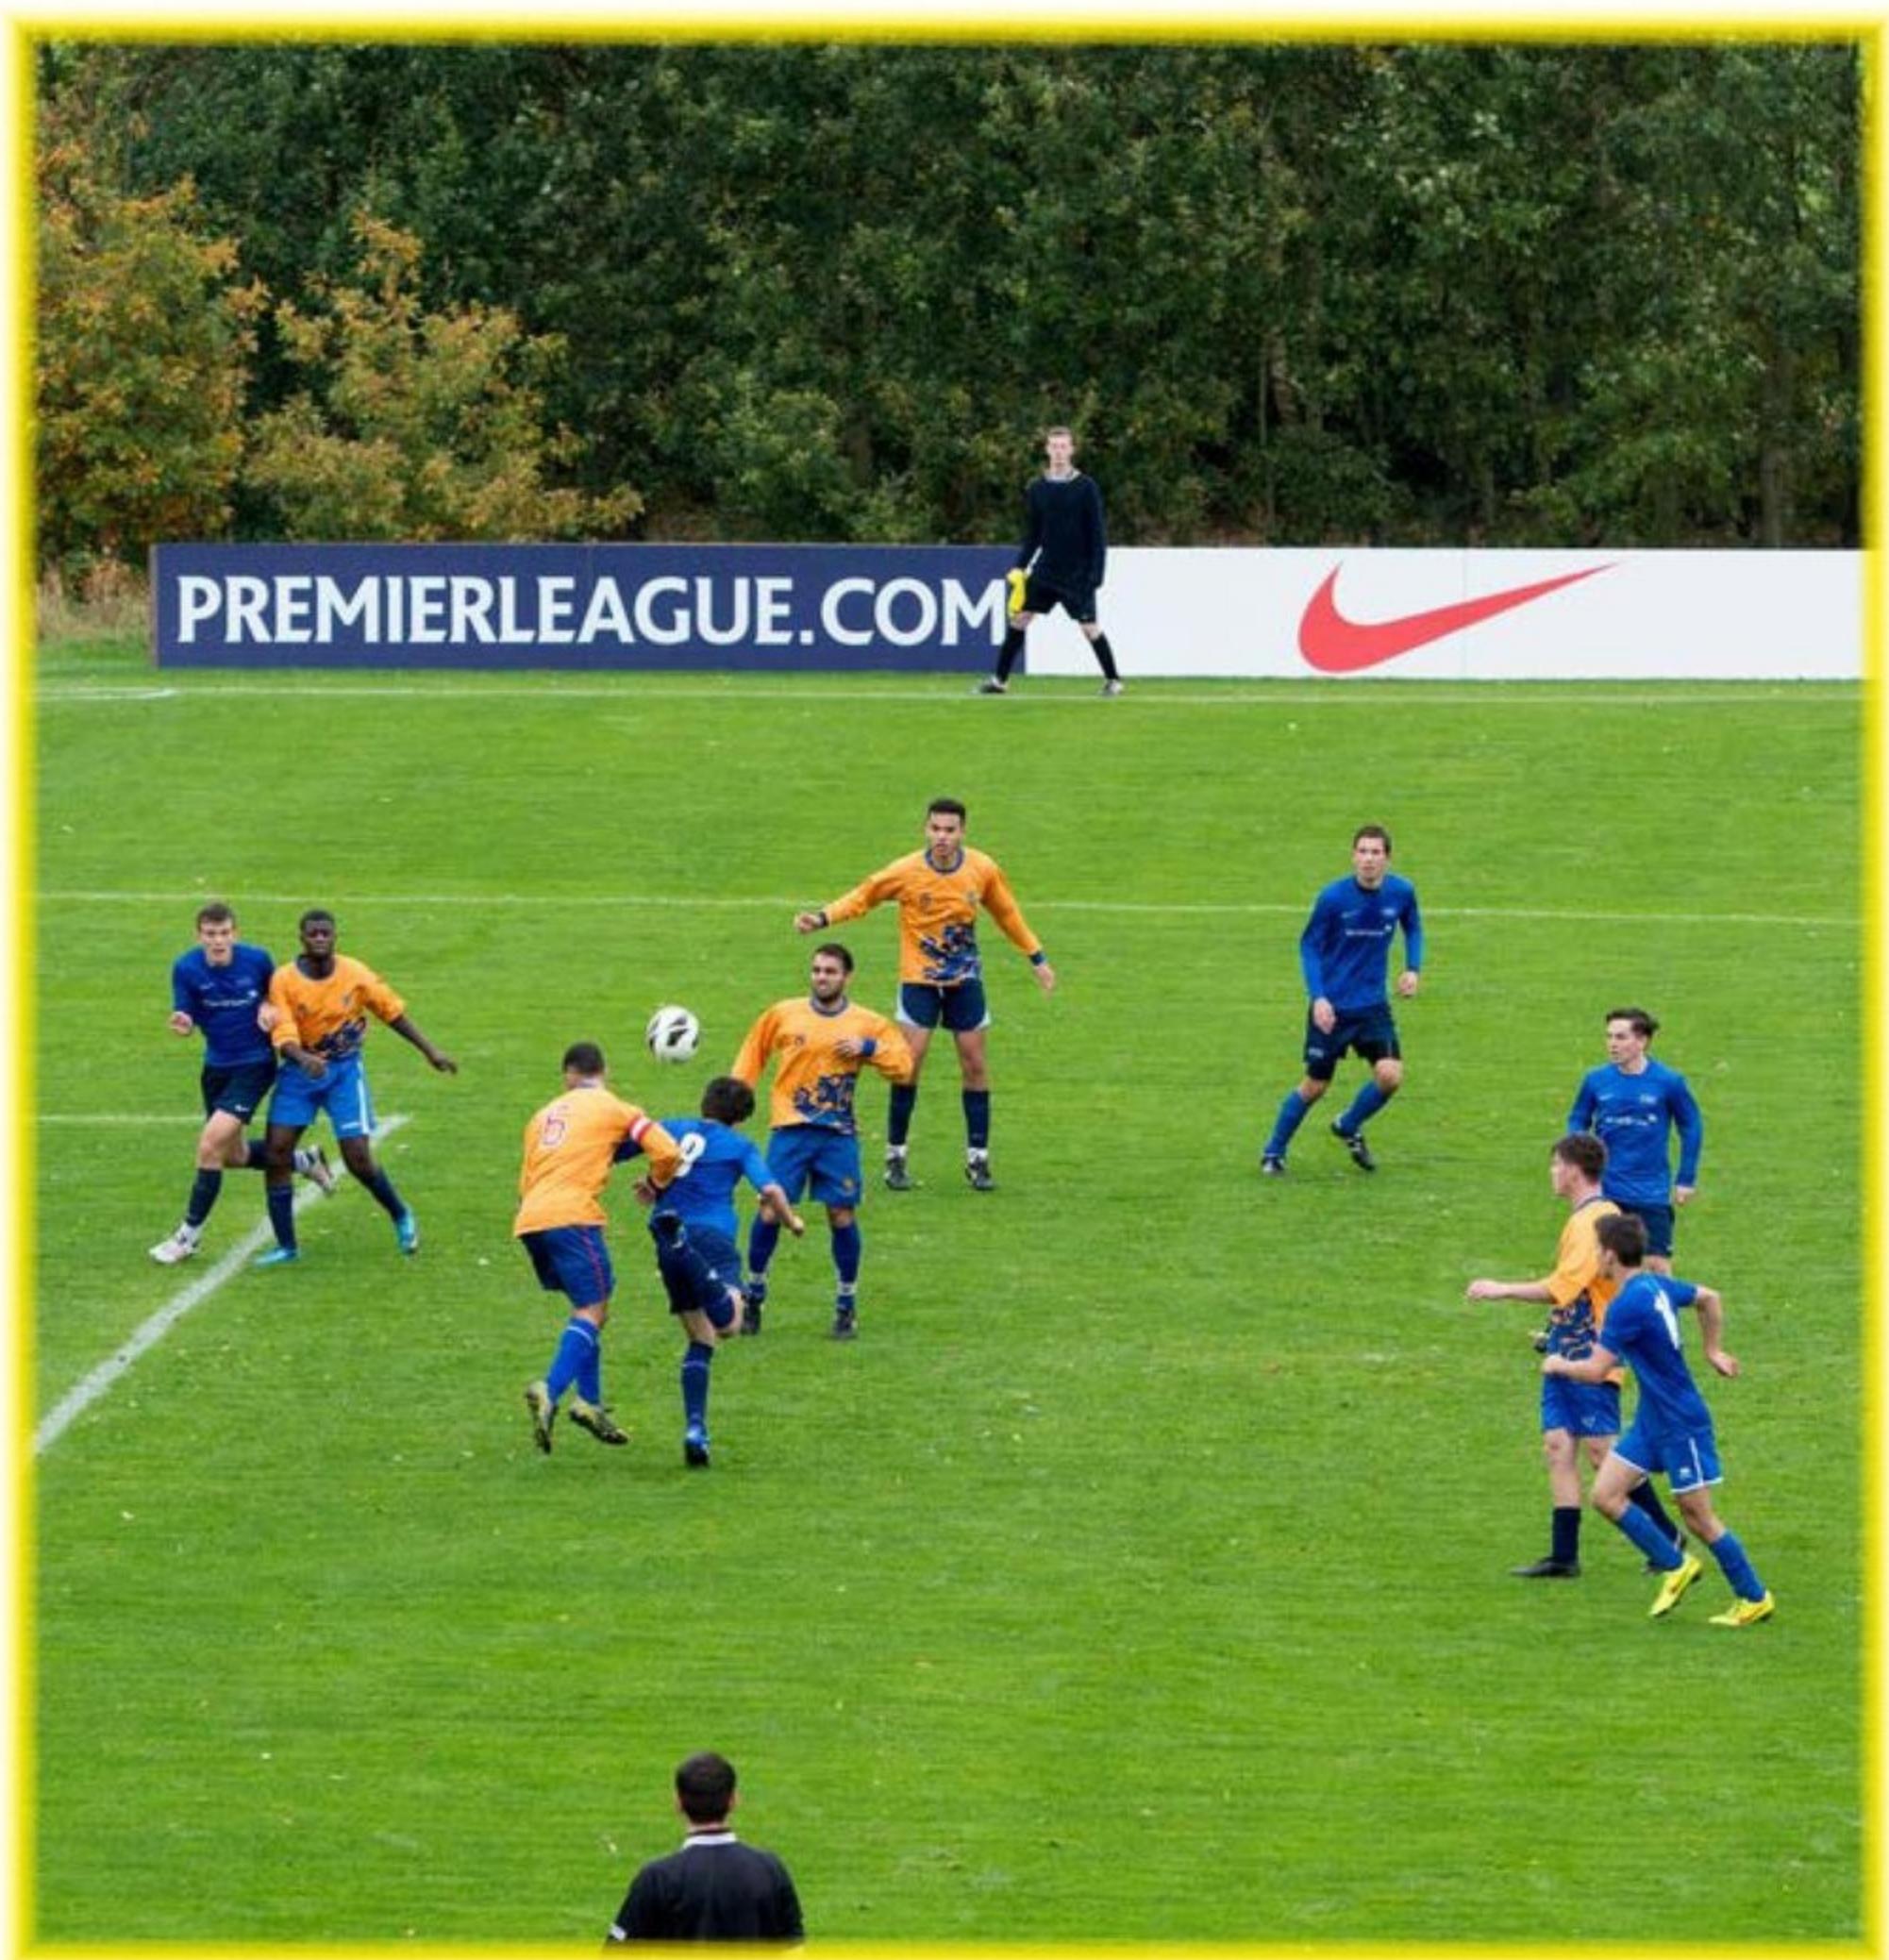

Soccer Field (pitch)

Playing the Game

A soccer team has eleven players. Players try to get the ball into the other team's net. When they do, they score a goal.

Working together with members of your team is a big part of soccer.

A player from one team (red) slides in to get the ball from the other team (green).

Some players try to take the ball from the other team.

They use their feet to get the ball.

Soccer Skills

- 1 Dribbling—moving the ball small distances with the feet
- 2 Passing—moving the ball to another player
- 3 Tackling—getting the ball from a player on the other team
- 4 Heading—using the head to move the ball
- 5 Shooting—kicking the ball to score a goal

One player on each team stays by the net.

They are goalies.

Goalies try to stop the ball
from going into the net.

Goalies have to think fast and must be very brave. They often dive for the ball.

Goalies can use their hands.

They can catch the ball
or hit away from the net.

Players may fly through the air to stop a ball.

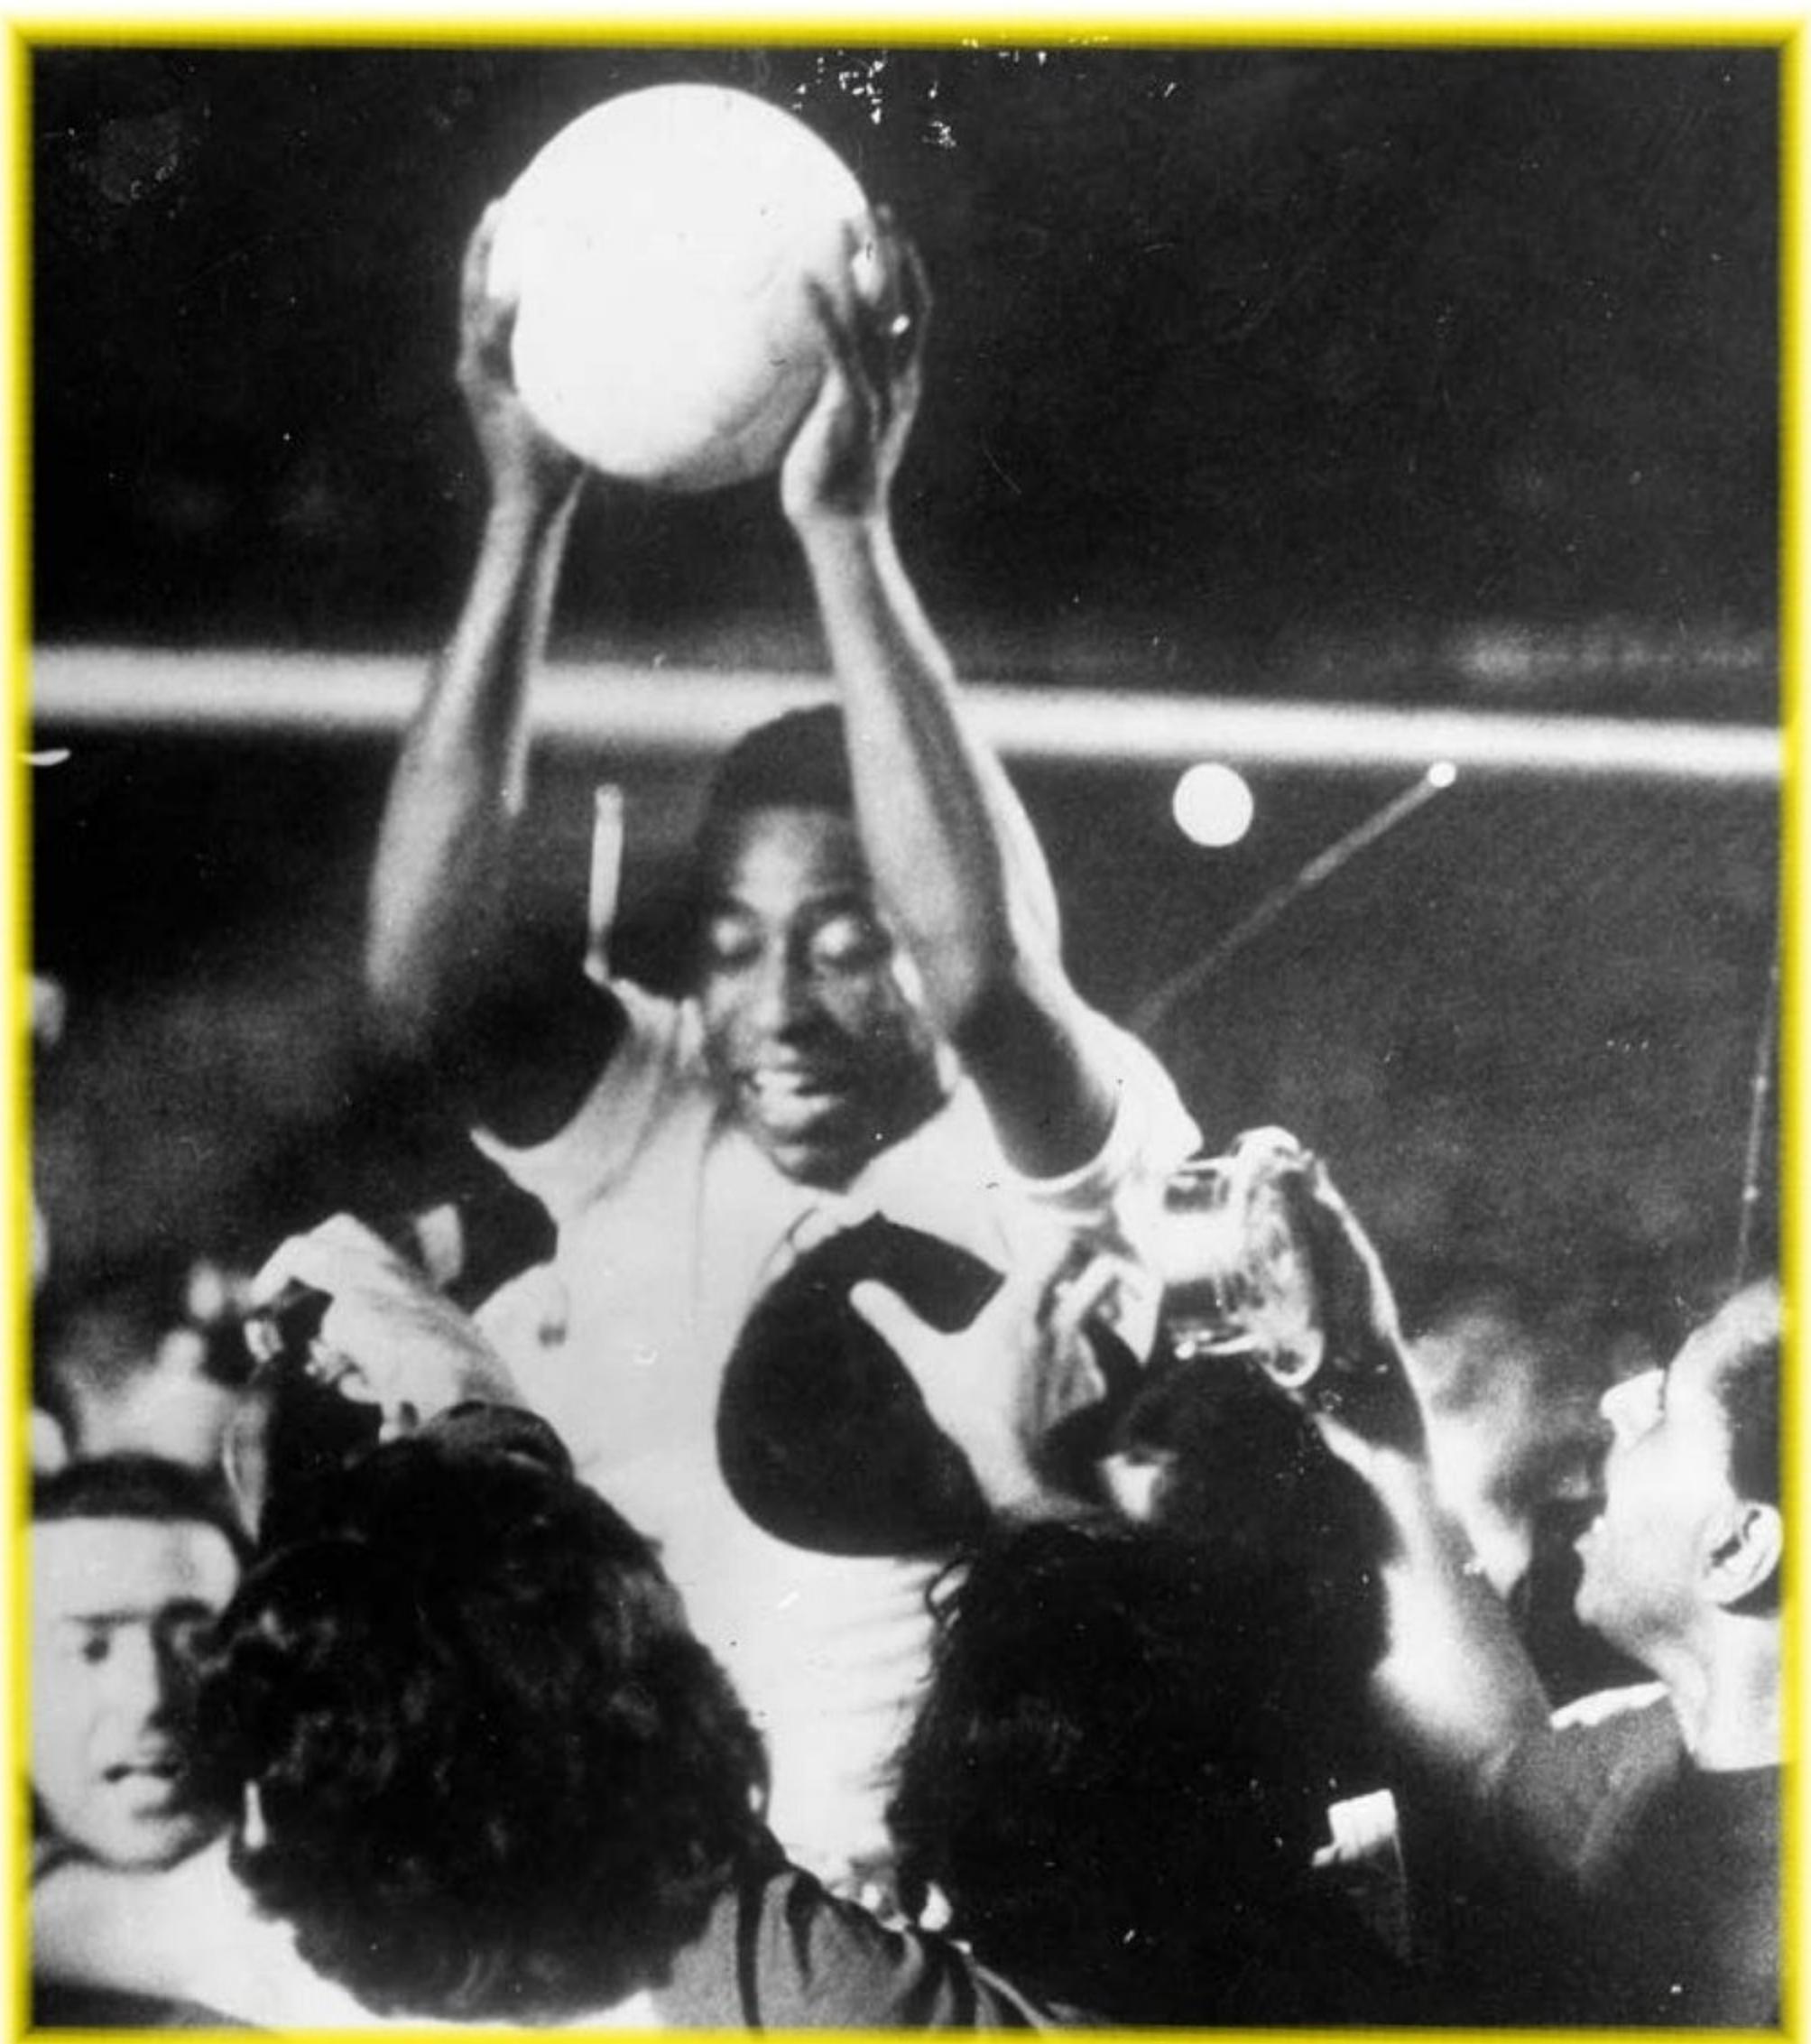

Mia Hamm was the first big women's soccer star.

Soccer fields are big.
Players need to be strong to run
for a whole game.
They need to practice to be good at soccer.

Fans around the world watch their teams play.

At the end of the game, the team with the most goals wins!

Even the other team cheered when a player scored one thousand goals. His name was Pelé.

Families can play soccer
at home or in a park.

Fun for Everyone

Anyone can learn to play soccer.
Do you want to play?
All you need is a ball
and some friends.
Soccer is a fun game for everyone!
